3 Year Old Boy Loses Both Grandfathers In Separate Crashes

At about 9 a.m. Tuesday, the boy was traveling with 67-year old John Kroh Sr. when their Chevy Blazer was hit head-on by a 1989 Chevy Suburban, according to state police. That crash happened on Route 443 in Union Township, Lebanon County. John Kroh Sr. died at the scene.

About 14 hours after the Lebanon County crash, the boy's other grandfather was killed in a crash one county away -- in Dauphin County. Robin Lucas, 47, died when he lost control of his vehicle on Gold Mine Road in Rush Township around 11 p.m.
